Class Number Change Made In New Catalog

new course numbering m has been approved by Dean s Council for use in 1957-38 Brigham Young versity catalog he council said the changes be made to provide a greatange of numbers to supply courses that are now of-lore digits will also enable retiring of a number when ourse is cancelled, rather using the same number for a new course. It will provide a special uniform of figures for preparatory remedial courses.

Through the new system, the ns said, students will have learer indication of the difilty of courses or the stage the student's academic career which such courses are normy taken.

Letters have been eliminated m course numbers except in case of extension courses.

The new system will also prole clear concise catalog indiion of the number of laboray and lecture hours per week uired of each course, as well the number of credits. This uld assist students and counrs in the registration pros nder this system all preparatory and remedial courses will be numbered from 1 99 Lower division courses will be included in numbers from 101-299

Upper Division courses will be numbered from 301-499, and courses which may be taken for credit by either graduates or advanced undergraduates will be numbered from 501-599.

Graduate courses will be numbered from 601-799.

BYU Students Invited To Join Pioneer Group

An invitation to Brigham Young University students who are descendants of Utah pioneers to join the campus chapter of the Sons of Utah Pioneers was issued Wednesday by Paul Turner, Sunnyside, chapter president.

The student SUP unit will hold an openhouse at 6:30 p m. Thursday in 250 Smith Building, at which the program of the organization will be explained Special guests will include Dr Jay B Hunt, national vice president of SUP, and Utah County Commissioner Verl G. Dixon, commander of Co. E of the reactivated Mormon Battalion which is sponsored by the organization.

Activities planned by the campus group include a number of trips to points of interest in the state, including the Pioneer Village in Salt Lake City, Cedar Fort in Utah Valley, and Camp Floyd which was headquarters for Johnson's Army in its occupation of Utah Territory a century ago.

The student chapter also plans to form a platoon of the Mormon Battalion, Turner said, and participate in parades and ceremonies with the colorful unit. Several members took part in several activities with the Battalion last year in Utah and California, he said. Dixon will explain the Battalion activities at the openhouse.

Other officers of SUP on the Temple Hill chapter of SUP on the campus are: Ken Harris, Columbia, vice president; Milo Durfee, Salt Lake City, secretary; and Robert Stout, Boise, publicity chairman.

Membership in the chapter is open to all men students who have as an ancestor a person who came to Utah before 1869, the officers announced. Two other local chapters, the Brigham Young and George Albert Smith chapters, include membership from the faculty and other local residents, they explained.

Seniors Face Deadline

A late fee will be charged for those students applying after this date. Applications must be turned in at the Registrar's office in the Maeser Building.

BYU Music Collection Moved To New Family Living Center

The music library moved into the new Smith Family Living Center from the Education Building this week

Located in 3261 SFLC, the library contains records, musical literature, and scores to many musical works

Listening equipment is provided for persons interested in hearing the records which are not for circulation. The scores and other literature circulate on the same basis as other library books.

Most of the records are of a classical nature. There are several complete Broadway shows such as "Carousel" and "The King and I." Many complete operas are in the library.

There are the complet scores to many of the records which the listener may follow as he listens.

Mrs. Viva Stanger is the record librarian. Library hours are from 9 a.m to 6 p m. and 7-10 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m , Friday and Saturday

The works in the library are being recataloged. When the work is done they will be listed in the card file by composer, form, artists, and title.

Between 250 and 300 new records are being added each year to the library.

'Poor Health' Prompts Near Tears Resignation By Britain's Sir Eden

LONDON—(INS)—British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden resigned Wednesday in a swift and dramatic sequel to the Anglo French invasion of Egypt.

The stunning climax to the Eden-Suez story came at a jarring surprise to millions of Britons.

In his statement on his health, Eden recalled his visit to Jamaica at the height of the Suez crisis. He said:

"When I returned to this country a month ago, I hoped that my health had been sufficiently restored to enable me to carry out my duties effectively for some considerable time. That hope has not been realized.

Eden made the short trip from No 10 Downing Street to the palace by automobile. He wore a brave little smile but it was obvious the Prime Minister was close to tears.

THE PALACE ANNOUNCED in the formal language of stiff tradition: "The Right Honorable Sir Anthony Eden had an audience with the Queen Wednesday evening and tendered his resignation as prime minister and first lord of the treasury, which Her Majesty was pleased to accept"

It was the same phraseology used 21 months and four days ago, when Sir Winston Churchill stepped down as prime minister to make way for his younger protege and successor.

The Conservative Party has not displayed any eagerness to hold a new general election at this time because of the chance of a Laborite victory.

THE CABINET MEETING lasted 55 minutes. During Eden's valedictory, the Queen returned suddenly to London from Sandringham, where she and her family were vacationing. Eden made a quick overnight visit to Sandringham Tuesday and returned to London a few hours ahead of the Queen

EDEN STILL WORE A FAINT SMILE a few minutes later as he was driven through the gates of the palace forecourt while waiting cameramen popped their flashbulbs.

Eden was escorted immediately into the Queen's small audience chamber. It was the same room in which the young gueen had received him on April 6, 1955, when she entrusted him to form his government, the day after Churchill quit.

Eden was with the Queen for 40 minutes. It was the second time in the short reign of the young sovereign that she had to accept the resignation of a prime minister. What was said between the two was not made known.

Outside the palace, a crowd of about 100 that had collected when the news of Eden's visit was flashed through London was still waiting when the outgoing prime minister left for No. 10 Downing Street.

BYU Stake Organization Celebrates First Year

by Clifta Bright
Daily Universe Writer

FIRST anniversary of Brigham Young University Stake was celebrated Tuesday.

Just one year ago the two campus branches were organized into one of the most unique stakes in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

The purpose of converting the branches into a stake was to enable each student to obtain greater spiritual growth and a stronger testimony of the gospel. The new stake also permits more study time offering the opportunity of a superior education

SINCE THE organization of the stake, there has been much progress and development. Under the leadership of President Antone K. Romney, the twelve campus wards were organized and all the auxiliaries of each ward were established Jed Richardson was selected as YMMIA stake president, Loree Brown became YWMIA stake president, and Mrs. Ernest L Wilkinson was named as BYU Stake Relief Society President. These people still hold their positions and have directed many successful activities during the past year.

MOST bishops, high councilmen, and stake leaders were members of the BYU faculty and administration The bishops of the initial twelve wards are Russell D. Lewis, First; Charles Taylor, Second; A. Lester Allen, Third; William G. Dyer, Fourth; Frank Killpack, Fifth; Wayne B. Hales, Sixth; Royal B Stone, Seventh; Melvin R. Brooks, Eighth; Raymond E. Beckham, Ninth; Clyde D Sandgren, Tenth, B. West Belnap, Eleventh, and J. N. Symons, Twelfth.

Dean B. Farnsworth became second counselor to President Romney in May, 1956. He replaced Joseph T. Bentley, who became the Mexican Mission President. Reid E. Bankhead was named stake mission president at the same time.

THE GREATEST change in the stake since its organization took place in October, 1956, when five new wards were added. This change was made because of an increase of approximately 2,000 students in the stake.

The bishops of these new wards are Albert D. Swenson, Thirteenth; Conan C. Matthews, Fourteenth; Loftis Sheffield, Fifteenth; Ernest Wilkins, Sixteenth; and Darrel Taylor, Seventeenth.

Children Dancers To Give Program

Thursday's student assembly will feature acts by Virginia Tanner's School of Dance, Salt Lake City.

Many of the numbers will be the same ones which were presented on a nation-wide television show recently, according to Pat Strong, student-body vice-president.

The Dance Theatre was organized by Miss Tanner in 1949. Her purpose was the development of hidden creative talents, healthy bodies and clean minds of the students.

Fantasy in Three Acts Has Romance–Magic

by Valerie Hill

"ONDINE," a fantasy in three acts by Jean Giroudoux will be presented in the Smith Auditorium Jan 16-19 at 8:15 p.m.

The play, "Ondine," uses a lot of magic, illusions, sudden appearances and disappearances. It is a romantic story about the pure love of a sea-nymph for a handsome knight-errant.

Into a humble fisherman's cottage comes Hans, the king's favorite, in search of evils to subdue There he meets and falls in love with Ondine, a sea goddess, who returns his love and becomes his wife.

HOWEVER, in order for Ondine to become human and marry Hans, she first must make a pact with the King of the Sea pledging that she will return to the water if Hans deceives her.

The play's climax is one of Ondine is Helen Keith, well-the most haunting farewell scenes in dramatic literature.

Placed in the leading role of known BYU dance production performer Playing opposite her in the role of Ritter Hans, the King's favorite, is Ron Clauson.

CARL Markworth and Chet Harris, two men who are familiar figures in school stage productions, add strength to the top billing with their portrayals of Lord Chamberlain and the Old Man of the Sea

Other familiar names spotlighted in the 19-person cast are MaKee Blaisdell as the first Judge and Lorna Hart as Bertha.

Also cast members are Luana Schow, William Erekson, Kwang Nam Yang, Janice Tenney, Jeri Swenson, Carol Christensen, Brad Powell, Dorothy Whittaker, Wayne Elton, James Fife, Terry Lynne Telford, Claudia Woolston and Sandra Forsyth.

Director Lael J. Woodbury is assisted by Professors Winnifred Bowers, Robert Struthers, and George Tanner as technicians. Dorothy Whittaker is supervisor of costumes.

Tickets are now on sale in the Smith Ticket office and free reserved seats are available to students with presentation of their student card.

Former Librarian Succumbs at 73

Mrs. Anna Ollorton, who served for 30 years on the Brigham Young University library staff, died Dec 24 at Phoenix, Ariz., at the age of 73.

Mrs Ollorton, who graduated from the BYU in 1931, was appointed assistant librarian here in 1918 She became acting librarian in 1923 and then in 1931 she was appointed librarian.

She was on the job when the library was moved from lower campus to its present location in the Heber J Grant Building, and is remembered by the faculty for her interest in the library and helping students

She served on the library staff until 1948 when she moved to Mesa, Ariz., where she worked at the Mesa LDS Temple keeping records.

Council Changes Will Instigate Improved System

Brigham Young University's Honor Council is working on fundamental changes to correspond with the constitutional changes being made by the studentbody government.

Modifications of the Honor Council will be included in the constitution and must be approved by the studentbody with the approval of the constitution.

Revisions will be made in the areas of academic and moral infractions, according to Howard Larsen, Honor Council chairman.

This new system is designed to provide students with a better understanding of the Honor Code and thus give them a more acceptable attitude toward the entire honor system

It will also limit the sphere of activity of the Honor Council, enabling them to better fulfill their counseling capacity, Larsen stated.

A film script, explaining the Honor System has recently been completed and production will begin soon. This film will help in the freshman orientation.

Ike's Proposal Denounced By Demo Solon

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Sen. W. Kerr Scott (D., N.C.) Wednesday denounced President Eisenhower's Middle East doctrine as "an undated declaration of war" and called for the resignation of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Scott assailed the President's Middle East proposals in a senate speech and accused Dulles of having "demonstrated time and time again that he is not dependable."

The North Carolina Democrat asserted that "nations all over the world—even our closest allies—have demonstrated that they have lost confidence in our Secretary of State."

SCOTT declared that it is "obvious" that President Eisenhower seeks "strictly a one-man show" in the Middle East program. The President is asking authority to use U.S armed forces if necessary to block Communist aggression.

The senator urged the President to consult "the more experienced people like Ex-President Harry S. Truman and former Secretaries of State George C. Marshall and Dean Acheson for their ideas on the Middle East crisis.

THE SENATOR said: "I think it is high time Pres. Eisenhower took a deep gulp and swallowed his pride when it comes to the future security of this nation."

Declaring that "petty political and personal feuds are ridiculous," Scott asserted that the President and Dulles "don't have a monopoly on the knowledge of foreign affairs"

Scott said that Pres. Eisenhower "can nurse along any petty hatred of former Pres. Truman he cares—but when the security of this nation and peace in the world is involved jealousy, pride or subbornness have no place in the picture"

Casaba League Opens Action In Intramurals

Intramural winter quarter activities jumped off to an early start on Monday evening with basketball taking first spot in the limelight.

According to Intramural Director Bill Hafen, there are now eighty-three teams participating in the intramural league. Hafen also expects this number to be increased now that entries have been re-opened. Deadline for new entries this quarter is Jan. 10

All intramural hoopsters should remember that they are only allowed to play on one team and that failure to comply with this regulation will result in the offending player being ousted from intramural competition This regulation also states that the team using an illegal player will also be ousted from competition

Entries have also been opened for players to enter into the following intramural sports: Paddle ball, singles, entries close Jan 15, Bowling, four-man team, entries close Jan. 15; Table Tennis, doubles, entries close Jan. 29; Handball, doubles, entries close Feb. 7. All interested persons should go to the intramural department office, 217 Smith Fieldhouse, to fill out entry blanks.

Participants in other winter activities such as chess, checkers, fencing, boxing, wrestling, and gymnastics, should watch for entry dates, which will be announced soon.

Cats 17th In Nation; Heavyweight Contender Arrested NCAA Convention Recommends T.V. Ball Remain Free

BRIGHAM Young University's basketball squad has been ranked 17th in the nation by a national news service. This follows the rating of 17th announced by the Coaches Poll earlier in the week. The Cougars are currently in a three-way tie for first place in the Skyline with Denver and Utah State.

ST. LOUIS, (INS)—A special committee on basketball television recommended at the National Collegiate Athletic Association's 51st annual convention in St Louis that the current policy of no controls be continued.

NCAA members are expected to approve the recommendation when it goes to the floor Friday.

REAVES E. Peters of the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association reported that a survey in the NCAA's eight districts showed "little concern among member institutions as to the effects of television on attendance."

Peters said it "was the consensus of the committee (which he headed) that institutions may avoid NCAA controls by wise use of their present freedom in telecasting, but it is suggested that a similar study might be made every two years to keep abreast of the trends in this area of telecasting."

NEW YORK, (INS)—Thomas "Hurricane" Jackson, ranking contender for the heavyweight boxing title, was charged today with forgery of a driving license and held for a hearing in felony court.

Jackson was given a summons early yesterday for driving without a license when his auto fatally injured a man on a street in suburban Queens.

The victim, Charles Balga, 60, a bus driver, died in Rockaway Beach Hospital a few hours after Jackson's auto hit him when he chased his dog across the street.

Cats Approach Crucial Series On East Slope

by Jerry Cunningham

If Coach Stan Watts' hustlin[g] Cougars can whip Wyoming an[d] Colorado A&M this weekend[,] Brigham Young University ma[y] be in possession of another Sky[-]line crown when the '57 basket[-]ball wars are over.

The tough jaunt across th[e] Rockies is always a formidabl[e] one for the western teams of th[e] conference. The Cougars mus[t] get out of Laramie and Ft. Co[l]lins with at least a split to re[-]main in contention in a ver[y] scrambled Skyline race.

The Rams host the Cougar[s] Friday night. BYU, ranked 17t[h] nationally, is a heavy favorit[e] to whip A&M which has bee[n] unimpressive in compiling [a] poor 3-7 pre-league record.

Colorado A&M has an 0-1 con[-]ference record as a result of [a] 62-70 loss to weak New Mexico.

On the basis of its 7-5 record, BYU would be favored over a Wyoming team which hasn't lived up to pre-season laudings. The Cowboys were hard pressed against New Mexico, 67-65, and were bombed by Denver, 74-56, which had won just two of eight pre-league games.

Past years have taught BY[U] that wily Coach Ev Shelton['s] Cowboys are tough to beat o[n] their home court, especially a[f]ter the conference starts.

The well-eraveled Cats ar[e] hoping that two junkets in th[e] East and one on the West Coa[st] will give them enough road con[-]ditioning to enable them t[o] overcome the awesome home court advantage of the Coloag[gies] and Wyoming.

BYU has proved that they ca[n] win on the road, having beste[d] St Johns, Ohio State and sev[e]nth-ranked UCLA away from home.

After little more than a week of play, two of three of the league's top contenders have been knocked off on the road, Utah State having dumped Utah, 68-64 in an overtime and Denver having whipped Wyoming.

Cat Forward Leads In Skyline Scoring

With seven of the conferenc[e] teams swinging into action la[st] week, John Benson, Brigha[m] Young University point-make[r] chalked up the best average f[or] scorers with 27 counters in h[is] first outing. Statistics from t[he] MSAC Commissioner's office r[e]leased this week show Colorad[o] A&M's Horace Blanton with [a] 26 point average and Z[] Rhoades of Montana and Uta[h] State's Ted Smith with 22 point marks.

Benson and Blanton hav[e] played only one conferenc[e] game while Rhoades and Smit[h] have performed twice. Th[e] Grizzly star pushed through 1[] against BYU and 28 again[st] Utah State at Logan for a tot[al] of 45 in the two games. Smit[h] bucketed 22 points against Uta[h] and 23 against Montana for h[is] 45 points for the first two con[-]ference battles.

Top rebounder is Rusty Goo[d]win of New Mexico who has 2[] for the two games with Rhoade[s] and John Teel of New Mexic[o] tied for second spot with 22 re[-]bounds USAC's Joe Lockyer [is] fourth with 21 rebounds.

DEAR MARY —

Several of your friends at school have been approached by salesmen selling stainless steel flatware. We thought a word to you would remind you not to be "taken" by the sweet talk. If you want stainless see us and let us prove our prices are as much as one-third lower, plus the fact that our patterns are guaranteed to be permanent patterns.

Remember —

Very Sincerely Yours,
M. R. ROGERS SILVER CO.
